

PRESS RELEASE

BrownFlynn plans to relocate to Downtown Cleveland

CLEVELAND (July 29, 2011) – BrownFlynn has engaged Allegro Realty Advisors, Ltd., a leading Tenant Representation and Corporate Real Estate services firm based in Cleveland, Ohio, to represent them in the identification and negotiation of a new headquarters location in Downtown Cleveland. BrownFlynn’s strategic decision to relocate downtown is the result of increased demand for their services, growing staff, and an ongoing commitment to the many sustainability initiatives underway in the Cleveland community. Allegro will also assist in the disposition of BrownFlynn’s existing 3,900 SF stand-alone headquarters building, located on Wilson Mills Road in Highland Heights, Ohio.

Allegro Realty Advisors

Allegro Realty Advisors, Ltd. is a Cleveland, Ohio based Commercial Real Estate Brokerage firm that provides real estate advisory services to local, national, and global corporations. The firm offers a unique real estate business model providing strategic, analytical, and transactional services exclusively to tenants and corporate owners of real estate. In addition to its global corporate services practice, Allegro maintains a robust tenant representation practice in Northeast Ohio.

BrownFlynn

BrownFlynn is a corporate responsibility and sustainability consulting firm. The organization specializes in advising companies on how to integrate responsible practices into their business strategies and communicate those practices internally and externally for maximum bottom line impact. Their client list includes a wide range of organizations, from fortune 1000 companies to local non-profits.

Contact: George Hutchinson, Chief Executive Officer of Allegro Realty Advisors, Ltd. at 216-965-0620, email info@allegrorealty.com or visit www.allegrorealty.com