

MOVERS & SHAKERS

DIARY

From staff reports

REAL ESTATE

Allegro names executive officers

Allegro Realty Advisors Ltd., a national corporate real estate services firm based in Cleveland, is restructuring to accommodate growth. For the first time, Allegro has appointed executive officers to guide the company. Named to lead the firm are George Hutchinson, president and chief executive officer; Russell Lamb, executive vice president, chief financial officer and treasurer; and Michael Cantor, executive vice president, chief operations officer, general counsel and secretary. All three executives, as well as the firm's other principals, will continue to lead client service projects and accounts.